FALL 2014

I have been wanting to send you a thank you for your extreme generosity. Your caring and loving way has helped us get through many trying and stressful times. ALS has taken away so many things in our lives but on the positive side it has brought into our lives many loving and caring people.

God Bless you & God Bless The Smithtown Children's Foundation.